The Act of March 4, 1909, going into effect July 1, 1909, provides that the Catalogue of Copyright Entries "shall be admitted in any court as prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein as regards any copyright registration."

THE Catalogue of Copyright Entries is published in four parts. Part 4, issued quarterly, is arranged in three alphabets of proprietors, with subalphabets of titles, as follows:

I. Containing Class G, Works of art (giving a list of the photographs or other identifying reproductions deposited according to law with the applications for copyright of Drawings, Paintings, Statues, Statuary, and Models or Designs for works of art).

II. Containing titles for Class H, Reproductions of a work of art; Class I, Drawings or plastic works of a scientific or technical character; Class J, Photographs (except Moving-pictures); and Class K, Prints and pictorial illustrations.

III. Containing titles for moving-pictures.

Under the act of March 4, 1909, the preliminary entry of titles has been abrogated and registration follows deposit of copies with an application for entry in the Copyright office.

To save space in the Catalogue the copyright notice after each title is abbreviated. The abbreviations used in this part are as follows: "G," Class G, Works of art; "H," Class H, Reproductions of a work of art; "I," Class I, Drawings or plastic works of a scientific or technical character; "J," Class J, Photographs; and "K," Class K, Prints and pictorial illustrations. "©" implies copyright registration of a published work, followed by date of publication. "© 1 c." stands for copyright registration of an unpublished work, followed by date of receipt in the Copyright Office of the photograph or other identifying reproduction; and "2 c." for 2 copies, followed by the date of their receipt. In the case of pictorial contributions to periodicals, only 1 copy of the pictorial contribution is required.

The annual index of proprietors, portraits and principal artists is furnished for this part in the final issue for the year. The subscription price for part 4, which must be for the complete calendar year, is $0.50 a year, payable in advance to the Superintendent of Documents by postal money order, express order, or New York draft.

As the Easter comes anew.—At the inn of All-is-Well.—As this little candle burns.

Before you reach this heart that's mine.—Book of spring is opened.

Do not decline this heart of mine.

Easter heralds balmy spring, 1, 2.—Easter sun, the Easter showers.—Every thing was topsy turvy.

Fear a tuggin' at your heart.—Flowers are springing, birds are singing.—Flowers fair in glad array.—Fragrant flowers scent the air.—F'riend, here's a wish I have no doubt.

Happy Easter. Women talk an awful lot.—House-keeper. Wanted by lonely gentleman.

I can't help my blarney.—I find none so dear as you.—I found a lot of valentines in green and pink and blue.—I hope your Easter eggs will hatch.—I send the book mark valentine.—I send this Easter blotter.—I send this Easter book mark.—I send this Easter card to mark the places.—I thought I'd like to find for you.—I went to have a sitting.—I wish to tell you that my heart.—Ich liebe dich, O komm be mine.—Ich liebe dich, wilst du be mine.—If all the earth were snow and ice.—If hearts were fruit upon a tree.—If I had half a million hearts.—If you would gaze on me a while.—I'll weep a salty sea of tears.—I'm trying hard to write a verse.—In hopes this day brings happiness.—I've hunted for a valentine.—I've nothing but my heart to give.

Let those love now who have never loved before.—Lost:—A little red heart shaped bundle.

Magic darts from cupids bow.—May every book you open.—May show'r and shine and birds and bees.—My heart feels awful jerky.

Now how can one expect poor me.

Oh little maid, don't be contrary.—One heart's an ace as I opine.—One pair beats three of a kind.—Only your heart will satisfy me.

Personal:—If the handsome young man.—Price of hats is now so high.

Repentance. I stole a kiss the other night.

Somber earth is blotted out.

Tagged on cupid tag day.—There is a charming rivulet, where all the fish are hearts.—These little blots all scattered here.—This blotter's just a little hint.—This bookmark as a valentine I am sending you today.—This is cupids tag day.—This day of St. Patricks when all wear the green.—This day though we are far apart.—This Easter day the world is fair.—This valentine is small indeed.—This wish for you I have in mind. 1, 2.—Tis love that makes the world go round.—To my valentine. 1. East or west home is best.—To my valentine 2 I luf you so hard.—To my valentine. 3. If I were but a great big man.—To my valentine. 4. If you will only smile on me.—To my valentine. 5. I'm way down in the dumpy dumps.—To my valentine. 6. Please think of me.—To my valentine. 7. Please light this little candle.—To my valentine. 8, 9. This stick of candy's very sweet.—To my valentine. 10. Though busy days keep us apart.—To my valentine. 11. To the happy little person.—To my valentine. 12. While I am I and you are you.—Top o' the mornin' my sweet Irish rose.—Top of the mornin' well I should guess yes.—Two's a couple, three's a crowd.

Were you an owlet on a tree.—Were you here you'd hear me say.—Will I do. [Man.]—Will I do. [Woman.]

NEW SERIES, VOLUME 7, No. 2

WASHINGTON
GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE
1912

The Act of March 4, 1909, going into effect July 1, 1909, provides that the Catalogue of Copyright Entries "shall be admitted in any court as prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein as regards any copyright registration."

THE Catalogue of Copyright Entries is published in four parts. Part 4, issued quarterly, is arranged in three alphabets of proprietors, with subalphabets of titles, as follows:

I. Containing Class G, Works of art (giving a list of the photographs or other identifying reproductions deposited according to law with the applications for copyright of Drawings, Paintings, Statues, Statuary, and Models or Designs for works of art).

II. Containing titles for Class H, Reproductions of a work of art; Class I, Drawings or plastic works of a scientific or technical character; Class J, Photographs (except Moving pictures); and Class K, Prints and pictorial illustrations.

III. Containing titles for Moving pictures.

Under the act of March 4, 1909, the preliminary entry of titles has been abrogated and registration follows deposit of copies with an application for entry in the Copyright office.

To save space in the Catalogue the copyright notice after each title is abbreviated. The abbreviations used in this part are as follows: "G," Class G, Works of art; "H," Class H, Reproductions of a work of art; "I," Class I, Drawings or plastic works of a scientific or technical character; "J," Class J, Photographs; and "K," Class K, Prints and pictorial illustrations. "©" implies copyright registration of a published work, followed by date of publication. "© 1 c." stands for copyright registration of an unpublished work, followed by date of receipt in the Copyright Office of the photograph or other identifying reproduction; and "2 c." for 2 copies, followed by the date of their receipt. In the case of pictorial contributions to periodicals, only 1 copy of the pictorial contribution is required.

The annual index of proprietors, portraits and principal artists is furnished for this part in the final issue for the year. The subscription price for part 4, which must be for the complete calendar year, is $0.50 a year, payable in advance to the Superintendent of Documents by postal money order, express order, or New York draft.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That sections five, eleven, and twenty-five of the Act entitled "An Act to amend and consolidate the Acts respecting copyrights," approved March fourth, nineteen hundred and nine, be amended to read as follows:

"Provided, nevertheless, That the above specifications shall not be held to limit the subject matter of copyright as defined in section four of this Act, nor shall any error in classification invalidate or impair the copyright protection secured under this Act."

Copyright protection of unpublished works; lectures, dramas, music, etc.

"SEC. 11. That copyright may also be had of the works of an author, of which copies are not reproduced for sale, by the deposit, with claim of copyright, of one complete copy of such work if it be a lecture or similar production or a dramatic, musical, or dramatico-musical composition; of a title and description, with one print taken from each scene or act, if the work be a motion-picture photoplay; of a photographic print if the work be a photograph; of a title and description, with not less than two prints taken from different sections of a complete motion picture, if the work be a motion picture other than a photoplay; or of a photograph or other identifying reproduction thereof, if it be a work of art or a plastic work or drawing.

"(b) To pay to the copyright proprietor such damages as the copyright proprietor may have suffered due to the infringement, as well as all the profits which the infringer shall have made from such infringement, and in proving profits the plaintiff shall be required to prove sales only and the defendant shall be required to prove every element of cost which he claims, or in lieu of actual damages and profits such damages as to the court shall appear to be just, and in assessing such damages the court may, in its discretion, allow the amounts as hereinafter stated, but in case of a newspaper reproduction of a copyrighted photograph such damages shall not exceed the sum of two hundred dollars nor be less than the sum of fifty dollars, and in the case of the infringement of an undramatized or nondramatic work by means of motion pictures, where the infringer shall show that he was not aware that he was infringing, and that such infringement could not have been reasonably foreseen, such damages shall not exceed the sum of one hundred dollars; and in the case of an infringement of a copyrighted dramatic or dramatico-musical work by a maker of motion pictures and his agencies for distribution thereof to exhibitors, where such infringer shows that he was not aware that he was infringing a copyrighted work, and that such infringements could not reasonably have been foreseen, the entire sum of such damages recoverable by the copyright proprietor from such infringing maker and his agencies for the distribution to exhibitors of such infringing motion picture shall not exceed the sum of five thousand dollars nor be less than two hundred and fifty dollars, and such damages shall in no other case exceed the sum of five thousand dollars nor be less than the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, and shall not be regarded as a penalty. But the foregoing exceptions shall not deprive the copyright proprietor of any other remedy given him under this law, nor shall the limitation as to the amount of recovery apply to infringements occurring after the actual notice to a defendant, either by service of process in a suit or other written notice served upon him.
